In REPLY to a communication from Recorder Williamson, asking whether attorneys have the right to demand the county records for use as evidence, County Solicitor Goss sent his opinion, that he did not believe the Recorder could be compelled to produce the book itself, and thinks that upon representing the facts to the various Judges, they would be very apt to require attorneys, in all cases hereafter, to use certified copies in evidence.

About half-past seven o'clock this morning, as one of the Pendleton cars was making the descent on Broadway below Third street, the wneels began to silde, causing the horses to run down the hill at a fearful rate. At the corner of Pearl street the car jumped the track and broke the hind wheels. The front platform of the car fell upon the leg of one of the horses and broke it at the knee. The breaking of the wheels brought the car to a stand still, when it was found necessary to kill the wounded animal. Another car coming down the same route immediately afterward also began to slide, ran into the wreck of the first oar, and was badly wrecked.

SOMETIMES a Cold will not yield to or dinary remedies, because of the sever of inflammation of the delicate lining of the inflammation of the delicate lining of the tubes through which the air we breathe is distributed to the lungs. This condition produces Pain and Soreness, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, Cough, Hectic Fever, and a Spitting of Blood, Matter or Phlegm, finally exhausting the strength of the patient, and developing very serious disease. Dr. Jayne's Expectorant seldom fails to remove those symptoms, by relieving the lungs of all obstructing matter, 2nd healing all soreness. Pleurisy, Asthma and Bronchitis are likewise cured by this standard remedy, and the reputation it has maintained for so many years affords the best guaranty of its merit.

young daughter of Mr. Wm. A sister of the suicide ran after her, but too late to prevent the fatal plunge. Her body was recovered.

The subject of retrenchment in the Police Department was referred to a sub-committee of five, consisting of hiessrs. Hogan, Reis, Fitzgerald, Eggleston and Dirr.

High-Handed Villainy.

The STAR some time ago had an article detailing how a policeman named Cissilo performed a mock-marriage between an abandoned woman of the lowest grade named Mary Nash (who by the way, has a husband black as the ace of spades), and a dirty vagabond who happened to be in one of those wretched slimes on Third street when the officer made a visit there. Well, he shows up again in a light that is less flattering than that little circumstance. It will be remembered that last spring two Italian padrones, one of whom is this same fellow, Officer Cissilo, were arrested and tried on the charge of cruelly treating three small Italian boys who were in their employ as street beggars and musicians. Cissilo's partner was convicted and sent to the Work-house.

The boys were sent to the Refuge. A tween an abandoned woman of the low-

At the Cathedral to-morrow morning

At the Cathedral to-morrow morning and take them home to Italy. He was recommended to see Officer Cissilo as to the proper steps to be taken, and, in short, they were given in charge of the officer, who took them to his residence, 43 Race street, where the uncle met them, and was about to depart with the boys, when this sweet-scented officer presents a bill of $75 for services rendered. To this the uncle demurred, but finally gave him a note for the amount, indorsed by the Italian Consul here, and started East last Sunday night.

East last Sunday night.

They got as far as Columbus, where they were arrested by the police on the strength of a telegram from this city, purporting to have been sent by Col. Snelbaker, Chief of Police. The day following up goes Clasilo, and, taking charge of the "prisoners," brings them back here, and takes them to his own house, where this time he dictated his own terms to the outraged Italian and own terms to the outraged Italian, and demanded one hundred dollars in cash, in addition to the note for forty dollars already given. Rafaclo, after consider-able trouble, and by the help of some kind-hearted Italians, raised the money and this time be and the boys are irec.

Comment is unnecessary; but if that blood-sucker, who has thus disgraced the police toroe, is much longer allowed to wear a uniform, then the Work-house had be ter close its doors.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE,-Considering the cold and disagreeable rain Miss Coombs drew quite a good audience last evening at the Grand. The few that did brave the weather, however, were richly rewarded for their pains, by as fine a representation of Bulwer's beautiful play, "The Lady of Lyons," as was ever seen in this city. A star, such as Miss Goombs, with talents of the highest or-der, aided by a refined and classical beauty, as "Pauline," supported by as der, aided by a renned and classical beauty, as "Pauline," supported by as imandsome a "Melnotte" as ever waiked the stage, could got fail to arouse an audience if they were any other than stone, especially in the fourth act, when "Claude" leaves with "Damas" to join the army in Italy. It almost reminded one of the storied accounts of the great Forrest and Miss Erlen Tree, the original "Claude" and "Pauline" in this country. Mr. Roche was especially happy in the lines descriptive of the palace by the Lake of Como, beginning:

"A deep vale

"A deep vale
Shut out by Alpiue hills from the rude world
Near a clear lake, margined by fraits of gold
And whispering myrtles:"

. It won for him a thundering round of It won for him a thundering round of applause, which he gracefully acknowledged. The "Beauseant" of Price, the 'Damas" of Bradley, and the "Giavis" of Shine were very good, indeed way beyond the ordinary, while Mrs. Knea s as "Widow Melnotte" was deserving of special praise.

The "Hunchback" will be given this evening, and to-morrow evening the "School for Scandal," with Miss Cocabs as "Lady" and Mr. Bradley as "Sir Peter Teazle," upon which occasion our public may look for something out of the common run.

Wood's THEATER.—Lotta's house suf-fered very little from the rain last even-ing, and though all was chill and gloom upon the outside, "Little Bright Eyes" was as cheerful and happy within, as a cricket. Her audience too, seemed to partake of her nature and all went merpartake of her nature and all went merry as a marriage bell. The support was magnificent, Russell, Locke and Ed. Marble by turns carrying the auditors with them. Locke especially was good, his make-up being one of the very best that we have ever seen, and, if it were not for that only familiar voice which it is absolutely impossible to disguise, as it mutters, "Excuse me, excuse meit you please," his mother would not know him. Mr. Goodrien, barring a bad voice, is a good actor and was well received last evening. "Musette" matinee to-morrow afternoon.

THE NATIONAL .- Mr. France drew an THE NATIONAL.—Air. France drew shother good audience last night at this house, the attraction being his sensational play of "Marked for Life." He is a talented actor, tree from all affectation, and his character of "Skid" is equal to anything we have ever seen in the sensational line. Matinee at this house to-morrow afternoon.

Mike FLINN became enamored of a handsome grey uister in the possession of Thomas Drury, even preferring it to a Thanksgiving turkey. Drury remonstrated, and called in Officer Benninger who escorted Michael to the Hammondstreet Station. Mike will eat bone turkey with mine host Morgan to-morrow.

We do not in the least feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed we are rather inclined to sympathize with him.
Evon now-a-days most of the cathartics offored to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellots he would not have uttered those words of contompt. It is really encouraging, when one is ill, to find that a little sugar-coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mustard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other cathartics, are really nature's physic,
They do not deblitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr.
Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.
